

Justin Luke Riley

Justin Luke Riley has been in long term recovery since 2007. He is YPR's President, CEO, and a founding member. Justin has done organizational development consulting for different industries. He was a youth and community engagement pastor as well as a private life coach. He graduated cum laude from the University Colorado at Denver in the University's Honors and Leadership Program in 2013, receiving a bachelor of arts in communication, mediation, and public relations. He is currently completing his executive MBA from the University of Colorado. As a natural leader and gifted public speaker, Mr. Riley has been featured in many media outlets for his involvement in youth leadership and community engagement. He is a prolific leader in recovery and has served on the executive board of multiple nonprofit enterprises. Mr. Riley also serves in many other service-oriented capacities. He lives in Denver, Colorado, where he is married to the woman of his dreams, Rachel Marie. They recently had their first child, Everly Hope, who enjoys spending time with her puppy King Bear.