

Walter Ginter

Walter is the Project Director for the Medication Assisted Recovery Support (M.A.R.S.) Project. Prior to the M.A.R.S. Project, Walter was the Director of Training and Certification at the National Alliance for Medication Assisted (NAMA) Recovery. In 2009, he received the Richard Lane/Robert Holden Patient Advocacy Award at the American Association for the Treatment of Opioid Dependence (AATOD) National Conference. Since 2001, he has been a member of over twenty federal expert panels and advisory groups, including the Methadone Treatment Advisory Group and Recovery Implementation Team of the New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS).